

Susan Broderick Mallett

Aerospace/STEM Educator

Susan Broderick Mallett is a retired teacher, administrator and university instructor with an educational tenure of 31 years in Alabama schools. As a public school principal, she led a nationally and internationally-recognized elementary school that integrated the aerospace theme throughout the curriculum. Since 2006 she has worked at the National HQ of the Civil Air Patrol at Maxwell Air Force Base (Montgomery), AL, primarily in Education Outreach.

In her position at CAP, Ms Mallett works across the country to coordinate free CAP airplane orientation flights and aerospace/STEM workshops for educators, and, with schools, museums, and youth organizations to connect K-12 youth with STEM-related products and programs, role models, and career opportunities. During the last 32 years, as an educator member of CAP, Ms Mallett has coordinated airplane flights for over 1,500 educators and 1,000 students, introducing them to the wonders of the sky and beyond.
